

Amy C. Horner

International Speaker
Change Enthusiast
Podcast Host

” Amy models an encouraging spirit in all of her interactions and is a great example of leveraging change to achieve great results

Michele Juliana
Nonprofit and Education
Industry Leader

TRUE
NINE
Strategize. Innovate. Empower.

Connect with me!

www.true-nine.com

Session Overviews

Navigating the Choppy Waters of Change

Change is inevitable and inevitably tricky. Navigating it takes strategy, planning, and collaboration. This session provides insight into the ways people react to change and demonstrates the importance of a collaborative process.

Generating Confidence to Boost Your Career

Feeling lost on your career path? Find your way by combining your career goals with a set of personal core values. Using them as your guideposts, I'll provide you with techniques to develop meaningful connections that support your goals.

Change is NOT a Four-Letter Word

Does the thought of change conjure a negative reaction? If you answered yes, you're not alone. Change is ever-present at a pace that shows no sign of slowing. Our future success hinges on our ability to adapt to change.

Strategic Planning Must-Haves

Leading an organization into the future is like taking a road trip to a place you've never been before. It takes a strategy that includes a planned route, a timeline, and milestones along the way. Do you know where are you headed? Join this session to make sure you consider essential steps in your journey.

Speaker Bio

Whether you are preparing for innovation and change, encouraging meaningful connections and network cultivation, or empowering others to develop a growth mindset, Amy's dynamic presentation style, combined with her eclectic career experiences and pedagogical techniques gleaned from her doctoral studies, keeps audiences engaged as intended messages are delivered.

Recognized by Ignition's Top 50 Women in Accounting and by LinkedIn as a Top Leadership Voice, she delights in sharing her experiences for the professional development and career advancement of others. Drawing from her experiences as a C-suite Executive back to her beginnings as a Big 4 Staff Auditor, Amy connects with the audience as they are and encourages them to envision the future through humor and story-telling to create "stickiness," ensuring the impact of her presentations lasts long beyond her closing remarks.

Clients Include

www.linkedin.com/company/truenine

@true__nine